Casillero del Diablo Cabernet Sauvignon

The wine is endowed with a remarkable bouquet, complex overtones and a lingering finish. It is well structured, perfectly balanced, dark and deep red color, appealing red cherries and black plums with a touch of toasty oak. This Cabernet Sauvignon goes well with the heartiest cuisine, including roasts, game, stews, spicy pasta dishes and robust cheeses.

O'Reilly's Pinot Gris '07—WHAT A DEAL

Lovely nose and great fruit flavor, with hints of butterscotch and toasted nuts in the nose, followed by flavors of honeydew, toasted nuts, pear, buttery oak, and clean spring water. The finish adds hints of tropical mango, pineapple, and passion fruit, then the toasty oak and caramel kicks in. A B.B.O. FAVORITE!

O'Reilly's Pinot Noir '08

A deeply colored wine, and it glows in the glass. It smells great, and on the palate it is loaded with fresh, juicy, intense fruit balanced with great acidity. The mid-palate is detailed, and the finish is long. Overall, the wine presents a very vibrant, appealing personality.
